

Ortho-Bionomy® is a principle based body work developed with the philosophies of Osteopathy, Martial arts and Homeopathy by Osteopath Dr. A. L. Paul's in 1970. It is a highly effective approach that offers recognition, comfort and change to the body, gently and naturally.

2020 training dates for first and second year

Modules 1, 2, 3 designed for First year participants (Associate Level Requirements)

Module 1 March 9-13, 2020	Exploration Of Movement (16)	Phase 4 (16)	Self Care(8) Tutorials (2)
Module 2 June 15-19, 2020	Phase 4 (16 units)	Posture and Post Tech. (16)	Self Care (8) Tutorial (1)
Module 3 Sept 28-Oct 2/20	Phase 5 (16 units)	Tutorial/2 study groups	Phase 6 (16 units)

Module 4, 5, 6 are designed for the Second year participants

Module 4 March 23-27, 2020	Chapman's Reflexes (16)	Practitioner training (16) Study Group (3)	Isometrics (8) Tutorial (1)
Module 5 June 22-26, 2020	Elective-Visceral	Ethics and Emotions (16) Tutorial (1)	Isometrics (8)
Module 6 Sept 21-25, 2020	Demonstration Skills	Phase 4 (16)	Study group & evaluations

Additional Classes to fulfill OBAC Practitioner Program

1-Phase 4 class

1-40 units Residential

1-32 units Anatomy & Physiology

1-Elements of a Successful Practice

Both classes may be eligible for a waiver

12 of the 20 required tutorials / 4 study groups / 2 evaluations are also included in the modules-

'Additional classes on request'

Hosted in beautiful Lake Country, B.C., these 5 day modules, 3 times a year for 2 years, offer most of the classes and support needed to fulfill the requirements of the Ortho-Bionomy Association of Canada Practitioner Training Program.

- Package price for 3 modules is $2800.00
 - $935.00 each 5 day module
 - $375.00 per 2 day class.
- Additional (5 day) Residential will be hosted in the spring or fall
- The additional classes will be available as needed
- Classes can also be taken individually
- Please register early to reserve (space is limited)

To register or request more information

Marie marielong@shaw.ca OR cell 250-540-0511
Peggy peggyoud@shaw.ca OR cell 250-317-2375

A $250.00 deposit is required with registration